Artist onboarding

Welcome to the studio. Read the first pages, fill in the last one and send it to info@3-6-9.studio.

Welcome

3-6-9.studio is a house for different artists under one roof. You work under your own name. We hold the room, the calendar and the door.

How you can be here

Your spot	One fixed weekday a week, 9 am to 10 pm, with your own place in the room. From 369 € a month. You sign a usage agreement (2.2).
A date	The room for a day, a half day or hours. Rates in Rent the Studio (2.1).
A format	You hold a workshop, dinner, ceremony or exhibition. Tell us the idea. We agree date, format and terms together.

First steps

1 · Fill in the sheet at the end and send it to info@3-6-9.studio.

2 · We talk about your format and the days that suit you.

3 · You sign the usage agreement (2.2) and pay the deposit where one applies.

4 · On your first day we walk through the room together with the inventory list (1.1).

5 · With your consent we add your profile and your dates to the website.

What you bring

Your practice. The permits and qualifications your offer needs. Business or professional liability insurance that covers your offer. Announcements that are true and make no healing, relief or success promises. Your own contracts and data handling with your participants. The consent of your guests when you photograph or record them (form 5.1).

What we provide

The room and its equipment as listed in the inventory list (1.1): kitchen, glassware, tables and benches, tatami mats, mirror, sound and WiFi. Your profile and dates on 3-6-9.studio. The people who are already here.

How we work together

Peer to peer, at eye level. We agree things in writing. You keep your work and your name, we keep the room and the calendar. Fees and revenue are agreed in writing before your first date.

The rules in short

The House rules (1.2) and the Terms (4.1) apply. Latest end 10 pm. Smoking outside only. Candles and open flame only by agreement. Nothing on the walls. Leave the room as you found it.
